THE "MIDWINTER" SCRIBNER.

The HARTFORD COURANT says of the Midwinter SCRIBNER: "The cover is a new design, sprinkled with snow flakes and swept with the dark clouds of a tempestuous sky, while below is an old-fashioned open fire-place with blazing logs and quaint andirons and a row of black-birds seated on the frame of the cheerful picture, like minstrels ready for the 'opening load.' The number is a royal one, and in some respects touches the high water mark of the extraordinary success of this periodical. We doubt if any magazine has ever been published with finer illustrations. And the text is not behind the illustrations in excellence."

"In point of immediate interest we give the place of honor to Mr. Noah Brooks's PERSONAL RECOLLECTIONS of LINCOLN. It is a most delightful paper, admirable in manner, and of the highest value as a help to the full comprehension of the man. One more paper is promised, but Mr. Brooks cannot do a greater service than to go on and exhaust to the minutest his recollection of the man who is on the whole the most peculiar figure in our history. We should add that the portrait of Lincoln drawn from a photograph, by Wyatt Eaton, is the best that has ever been printed of him—is most of his character."

The NEW-YORK WORLD says: "One [illegible] quality of this head is its essential originality [illegible] admirable in every line [illegible] and yet it is a new likeness."

Subscription price $4.00 a year. Subscribers [illegible] with the February number and receive the Scribner Extra, containing the opening chapters of Dr. Eggleston's story, "Roxy," and the earlier [illegible] stories, by Frank R. Stockton.

The February number will be sent post paid to any address for 35 cents, or it may be had of any book [illegible]

ST. NICHOLAS.

SCRIBNER'S ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE FOR GIRLS AND BOYS.

February Number Now Ready.

The LONDON ACADEMY of December [illegible] says: "[illegible] ST. NICHOLAS [illegible] the best of any juvenile literature that we have yet seen [illegible] We have no hesitation in saying that [illegible] the letter press and [illegible] the pictures [illegible] American magazine [illegible]."

In ST. NICHOLAS for December, the Grand Christmas Number, was begun a [illegible]

Serial Story by Miss Alcott

"Under the Lilacs," illustrated by MARY HALLOCK FOOTE, to continue during the year. [illegible] Christmas number, of which one hundred thousand copies were printed, contained the opening chapters of

for boys, "Tower Mountain," by GUSTAVUS FRANKENSTEIN; also poems by LONGFELLOW and BRYANT, a portrait of Miss Alcott, [illegible] short stories, pictures, poems [illegible] the handsomest number of a children's magazine ever issued.

The NEW YORK TRIBUNE says:

"ST. NICHOLAS has a list of contributors [illegible] other children's magazine, or few publications of any sort, in the world can boast. It has enlisted the best writers in America to turn their attention to the task of giving delight and imparting culture to children. In the avalanche of immoral literature that threatens the children, some strong, vitally wholesome and really attractive magazine is required for them, and ST. NICHOLAS has reached a higher platform, and commands for this service wider resources in art and letters than any of its predecessors or contemporaries."

ST. NICHOLAS FOR 1878.

Besides the SERIAL STORIES above announced will have a short serial story by the author of "The Schonberg-Cotta Family," and THREE SPLENDID SERIALS FOR BOYS, one of which, "DRIFTED INTO PORT," by EDWIN HODDER, an English writer, will begin in March. Harper's Bazar.

ILLUSTRATED.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The Bazar is the organ of the fashionable world, and the expounder of that world's laws, and it is the authority in all matters of manners, etiquette, costume, and social habits.—Boston Traveller.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to paterfamilias by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing gowns. But the reading matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fireside enjoyment it affords and has become an established authority with the ladies of America.—[illegible] Evening Post.

It was not missed until Wednesday morning when [illegible] thought [illegible] might have been stolen. He sent to Yarmouth however and found the ticket master had discovered it and was keeping it safely for the owner. It arrived in Augusta Wednesday evening [illegible] speaking [illegible] for the honesty of the ticket master.

Parties have been talking of starting a lobster factory on the point near the [illegible] wharves at Rockport.

The ice business commenced at Rockport Monday in good earnest and three of the companies are at work. Carleton & Co. have employed upwards of 80 men and 20 teams. Rockport Ice Co. from 90 to 100 men and about 25 teams, Barrett & Co. some 75 men and 15 teams.

Carleton & Co., of Rockport did a big stroke of work on Tuesday and Wednesday, taking out twelve thousand seven hundred and thirty cakes of ice during the two days with two derricks. The cakes will average 200 lbs. each, amounting to over 1,00 tons.

Friday forenoon Charlie Noctor of Bath, while at work stowing ice in the hold of a schooner at Parker's Head, received severe injuries in the foot from a cake of ice falling on it.

George M. Bright, the subject of the recent shooting accident at Bath is doing very well considering the nature of his wound. The Doctor says four days more will decide positively whether he will live or not.

The Bath Times says Mrs. Sophia Preble and Mrs. Abigail M. Pinkham, whose obituary notices appear in another column, were sister, and lived in the same house. Their deaths occurred within ten hours of each other. The funeral services of both take place at the Beacon street church to-morrow, a singular coincidence with the fact the funerals of the mother and another daughter took place together in the Elm street church some years ago.

TUESDAY, FEB 12 1878

The Democratic majority must be strengthened, and Wiggleton who has no more right to a seat in Congress than one of the pages of the House [illegible] the man who was legally elected.—N. Y. [illegible]

That March Ch[illegible] miracle [illegible] ed Sunday by Father Helman, who performed it reading a letter to his congregation in which Archbishop Wood pro[illegible] a pious fraud [illegible] which was true although it must have been [illegible] Father Helman.

The New Orleans [illegible] [illegible] all the radical names [illegible] Lincoln Colfax and Grant [illegible] given to towns and counties in the South [illegible] the Democrat all are [illegible] names as they suggest the triumph of the Union principle over secession. And yet the blatant [illegible] of the Democrat is the type of [illegible] rebel.—[illegible] Ocea[illegible]

But [illegible] surroundings were not good. Therefore he will in the other world [illegible] good bath [illegible] the mercy of God is [illegible] the heart of Christian [illegible]

A private letter from Constantinople [illegible] date of January [illegible] gives the following terrible picture of [illegible]

Yesterday [illegible] saw [illegible] hundreds of re[illegible] who [illegible] fled from their homes [illegible] [illegible] Bulgarians [illegible] helped in the fearful massacre of [illegible] [illegible] found a mother with a babe [illegible] her breast [illegible] mother was frozen dead. There were [illegible] children with her [illegible] [illegible] village.

A [illegible] the armed vessels of [illegible] American [illegible] Capt Bainbridge who [illegible] the frigate George Washington [illegible] the second a frigate of twenty-[illegible] 1811 and the third [illegible] Capt Barron who in 1829 passed up to Constantinople defending his action upon the ground that the [illegible] of the Treaty of Paris [illegible] nevertheless received [illegible] the fact that [illegible]

A New York paper [illegible] from Washington saying

[illegible] President [illegible] personal friends yesterday that he [illegible] the present [illegible] in Louisiana [illegible] the promise made [illegible] the troops were withdrawn.

If the people knew what those promises were they might agree with their [illegible] but for some reason the secret history of that little arrangement seems hard to get at. We remember too [illegible] troops been sent [illegible] to do so and for no other reason [illegible] If that was the case [illegible] what any promise [illegible] have to do with the subject.—Inter Ocean.

A tragic incident occurred in Memphis last Tuesday [illegible] how lightly a certain class of whites in the Southern States regard a negro's life [illegible] property. A negro [illegible] ordered out by the jailer [illegible] out the jailer struck [illegible] with a pistol. The negro [illegible] The latter [illegible] the bullet missed the negro and hit a respectable grocer named Griffin who was standing [illegible] him instantly. The Memphis Avalanche [illegible] coroner's jury after investigating the case [illegible] declared it was a fatal accident [illegible] that Memphis has lost a good citizen a family its loving protector and that no one is guilty.

The outrageous proceedings in New Orleans against Thomas C. Anderson of the Louisiana Returning Board are detailed in our telegraphic columns this morning and show that the mockery of a trial is as [illegible] as have been the massacres of colored men in the South by the infamous White League. Though no indictment was found against Mr. Anderson yet on information furnished by a notorious White Leaguer, he was arrested, excessive bail fixed, and the prisoner [illegible] his persecutors intended confined in the parish jail until further steps in the perpetration of the outrage could be taken. The jury was carefully selected with but one object in view and that the conviction of the prisoner. So carefully was this jury packed that all the creatures on it save two young and ignorant colored men, were Democratic White Leaguers who by [illegible] if not by a stronger means, obtained the agreement of these otherwise innocent parties to the gross outrage. There was not a shadow of foundation for the pretence of a charge made against Anderson even the man Littlefield having borne witness to his innocence in the matter long before. The Judge who aided this gross mockery of justice is himself a defaulter and what the witnesses against Anderson must have been can be easily determined from the character of the other parties. This disgraceful, outrageous travesty on law and justice has been performed in a "conciliated" State, under "local self government," and is one of the fruits of conciliation, which just now appears to mean the penitentiary for Republicans regardless of right, law, justice or decency, while any Democrat who has a good record as a leader or participant in the blackest deeds of the White League, is given full protection for his crime and is rewarded with full power and opportunity to exercise his malice by falsely swearing innocent political opponents into prison by aid of a judge and jury of his own character.

The movement in favor of abolishing the death penalty in Italy which was apparently so strong and enlisted in its support such a prominent man as Garabaldi—has lately received a decided check. Signor Mancini of the Italian Assembly recently drew up a penal code which introduced a number of innovations including the abolition of capital punishment and it passed the lower branch by a large majority. The special committee appointed by the Senate to consider the matter has however, voted unanimously against the clause doing away with the death penalty and the probability is that it will be defeated when the Senators come to vote upon it. It is evident that something was necessary to check the false humanity which has of late prompted Italian juries to spare the worst criminals the legitimate consequences of their evil deeds and a reaction against this spirit is visibly setting in. Indeed sentences of death have never been so numerous as since the Minister of Justice announced his determination that such sentences should never again be followed by execution. The cause of this reaction we need not go far to seek. A feeling of alarm [illegible] almost necessarily excited by such shocking miscarriages of justice as the following which recently occurred at Como and has been published in the telegraphic columns of the London Times. A man by the name of D[illegible] was violently in love with a woman of bad character who through fear of his violent temper avoided him and fled to various [illegible] from place to place. He [illegible] [illegible] and at last tracked her to a house in Lugano [illegible] she refused to follow him [illegible] stabbed her to the heart. Brought to trial he was found Not Guilty by the jury [illegible] consideration of the irresistible force of his passion which [illegible] no longer allowed him to be considered a responsible being. This case has aroused even the papers most warmly advocating [illegible] of punishment to cry out and generally [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Mancini [illegible] his partisans [illegible] [illegible] from the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] to force [illegible] [illegible] the whole world by [illegible] modifying the [illegible] extradition treaties between Italy and other States that on the application of any of these for the delivery of a criminal [illegible] by the justice of [illegible] it shall be stipulated that in any event his life [illegible] be spared. There seem to be [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] take the lead in the cause of progress [illegible] [illegible] seeing the world [illegible] generation.

FORTY FIFTH CONGRESS—Second Session

Washington D C Feb 11

Mr Matthews presented a petition from [illegible] Banks [illegible] composing the Cincinnati [illegible] Association urging the [illegible] of the National Bank [illegible] tax of one per cent [illegible]

[illegible] of petitions favoring [illegible] persons on [illegible] were presented.

Mr Conkling said he held in his hand a [illegible] from the New York Chamber of Commerce remonstrating against the remonetization of the silver dollar, and as [illegible] the Senate did not permit [illegible] it at length he said he [illegible] the argument was so [illegible] comprehensive.

[illegible] bills were introduced and Mr Conkling presented a petition of 193 persons doing business on Broadway New York [illegible] the remonetization of silver.

The Senate then resumed the consideration [illegible] silver bill, and Mr Davis of W [illegible] spoke in favor thereof.

Mr McDonald then took the floor with [illegible] that he would proceed [illegible] remarks to-morrow, and the Senate adjourned.

House

The Speaker announced the regular order [illegible] to reconsider the vote [illegible] House last Friday refused to [illegible] the relief of W H Newman [illegible] Hoffman known as the Al[illegible] A motion to lay on the table prevailed—yeas 105, nays 113, which [illegible] of the bill.

The House at 3 o'clock went into a committee of the whole with Mr Blackburn in [illegible] upon the Military Academy appropriation bill, the pending amendment [illegible] to strike out the sections which allow [illegible] pay to the first lieutenants acting as instructors at the Institution. After a short discussion the amendment was [illegible]

Mr Aiken of South Carolina moved to [illegible] so as to reduce the pay of cadets [illegible] $ [illegible] to $500. He criticised the [illegible] appropriation committee in several appropriations. In conclusion [illegible] West Point was an incubus on the people of the country. If the people knew [illegible] $ [illegible] 000 was appropriated [illegible] thirty days the House [illegible] with demands to put [illegible] under the hammer or give it to New York, and he was bold enough to say [illegible] would vote for such a proposition.

[illegible]—No doubt! No doubt the gentleman [illegible] from the State he does [illegible] to give West Point to any [illegible] but West Point is vindicated [illegible] the history of this country and the [illegible] will never allow it to go under the [illegible] closed up. (Applause.)

Mr House of Tennessee (excited)—I [illegible] it would better become the gentleman from New York to answer the arguments of the gentleman from South Carolina than to make the ad captandum appeal of a demagogue which slanders the representatives of the whole Southern people. (Applause on the Democratic side.)

The amendment was then rejected and without further action the Committee rose and the House then adjourned.

ANDERSON'S "TRIAL."

HOW IT WAS ARRANGED.

No Indictment Found.

The Jury Packed—The Judge a Defaulter—The Proceedings a Gross Outrage on Law—And this is how the Conciliated White League Deals out Justice

Washington, Feb 11 Secretary Sherman being asked if it was true that he, Matthews, Garfield and White had sent a despatch to Anderson, said it was true and as that fact had been made public he would furnish a copy of the despatch and they meant all they said. Mr Sherman then stated that he regarded the arrest trial and conviction of Anderson as a great outrage under color of law. Anderson was not indicted. The Grand Jury had refused to indict him. The proceedings against him are called an "Information," and it is expressly prohibited in cases of felony by the Constitution of the United States and of most of the States, but is provided for by law of Louisiana. The "Information" was signed and filed by a man who was an officer of the White League, identified with all the numerous crimes of that organization. The Judge who tried the case is a public defaulter for over $600,000. When Anderson was arrested he was acting Collector of the port of New Orleans, and the arrest was made while he was in the discharge of his duty at the Custom House, which stands as Mr Sherman thinks on ground under the sole jurisdiction of the United States by cession from Louisiana. He was hurried to prison, required to give excessive bail, and failing to do so, kept in custody. He was denied all postponement, forced to trial, convicted and is now held for sentence without the benefit of bail. The jury was packed to convict. The panel had been carefully selected almost exclusively of one political party and one race. Their examination (as it is called) showed the deepest and strongest prejudice against the defendant, and in any tribunal he (Mr Sherman) knew nearly every one would have been rejected on his oath and yet though challenged they were sworn in. With such a jury I am prepared to believe the story telegraphed this morning that the two colored jurors were tricked into agreeing to this verdict by an empty appeal to the mercy of the court.

The pretence set up for the prosecution was that Anderson had participated in a forgery in the alteration of the Vernon parish returns, but there is not one particle of evidence to connect him with the act. The whole had been thoroughly examined here by committees of Congress and all records and returns had been spread before them and even Littlefield, who made the alteration has exculpated Anderson from knowledge of it. The truth is the Vernon returns were opened by the Returning Board before hosts of witnesses. On the [illegible] day of the examination they were printed and were precisely as they were in the daily paper and shown in both Houses of Congress and the subsequent alteration by Littlefield of one copy of the returns was done either as a put up job by him or in the interest of local candidates, having no effect upon the general result. There does not appear to be a single scrap of testimony showing that Anderson participated in it to the slightest degree, yet upon this false pretext he was convicted. I still hope that this conviction will not be carried into execution. Out of it as a matter of course the deepest feeling of resentment and hostility will exist in the mind of the great mass of the people who believe that these returning officers did but their simple duty.

Nothing has been done pending the trial to interfere in any way with the course of judicial proceeding, but if Anderson is imprisoned under this sentence it will be a mockery of public justice, and will bring into contempt all efforts at peace and conciliation. It is an unlooked for and terrible commentary upon the efforts of the President to quiet the turbulence and violence of Louisiana politics and seems to me an act of folly and madness. The following is the despatch sent by Sherman, Matthews, Hale and White:

Washington, Feb 8 1878

To Gen Thomas C Anderson New Orleans

The undersigned feel it due to you under present circumstances to assure you of our unhesitating belief that in the matter wherein you stand charged you are altogether guiltless of any offence; that you are falsely accused and maliciously persecuted, that the proceeding against you, though in form of law, is without substance of justice. We hereby tender our earnest sympathy and express our hope that the cause of justice and love of peace of the people of Louisiana will protect you, and not permit the best interests of the whole country to be disturbed by revival of sectional animosities. In any event we are confident American people will redress any injustice of which you may be made the victim.

(Signed) John Sherman, Stanley Matthews, J. A. Garfield, Eugene Hale, Harry White.

The President Fears it will Disturb Conciliation

The President has written a letter to Attorney General Devens on the subject of Gen Anderson's conviction in New Orleans. It is reported that while temperate in tone regret is expressed that such proceedings should have taken place. Apart from all other considerations they tend to disturb the conciliation which was hoped would be satisfactory to all parties in Louisiana.

The Exceptions in the Anderson Case

In addition to the exceptions already on file the Attorney General is ordered to show cause on Wednesday why a new trial should not be granted on the ground

1st—That James Prince, one of the jurors who ordered the verdict in this case, notwithstanding the fact that he stated under oath in his voir dire examination that he was over the age of 21, was and is in fact a minor under the age of 21, and as such wholly incompetent and debarred by law from acting in the capacity of a juror.

2d—That Thomas C Anderson was tried by eleven jurors and not in the mode provided by the Constitution.

3d—That notwithstanding the fact that Jeremiah Lincoln, a juror herein, had sworn on his voir dire examination that he was a competent juror and had formed or expressed no opinion calculated to affect an honest verdict, yet it is susceptible of proof that such is the fact that a few days before the day of the trial he openly stated that Anderson was guilty, that he had no doubt of the fact, and that said Anderson should be hanged for it, or words to that effect.

War Clouds Gathering.

Constantinople to be Occupied.

PASSAGE OF THE DARDANELLES.

This Morning's London Times View

A VERY GRAVE SITUATION.

Russia's Position Regarding the Occupation of Constantinople

London Feb 11. A Berlin despatch states that Gortschakoff has notified the Powers that since England has resolved to send a fleet to Constantinople ostensibly to protect the Christians, Russia also contemplates occupying the city from the land with the same object. The Journal de St Petersburg says so far as Russia is concerned we think this measure ought not to make her deviate from the policy she has heretofore followed. Long before the event which now brings the English fleet into the waters of Constantinople that eventuality was foreseen and made the subject of instructions to the Russian Commander-in-Chief. If we are well informed these instructions directed in case the Ottoman capital be occupied by Imperial troops and a British fleet should appear before the city the fleet should be received with all consideration due to a friendly power and that if necessary for protecting the lives and property of British subjects should cause troops to be landed they should be regarded as welcome auxiliaries for the maintenance of order as long as their activity was confined to such purpose. Now that the English fleet is approaching Constantinople and has thereby given a rendezvous to the fleets of the other great Powers who may assume the same course, [illegible] will be maintained between the naval and land forces of the different States if they should meet on Turkish soil. Sixteen months ago this measure was proposed by the Russians and refused by the Cabinet of London. How much bloodshed and suffering might have been averted by acceptance of that proposal.

The Porte Refuses the English Fleet Passage of the Dardanelles

London, Feb 11. The Telegraph has the following from Constantinople Saturday night. The Porte has refused a firman permitting the British fleet to come to Constantinople on the ground that if the Sultan allows it the Russian forces will probably occupy the city.

A St Petersburg despatch says the Agence Russe [illegible] an article [illegible] its declaration on Saturday that the entry of the fleets of the Powers into the Bosphorus will [illegible] liberty of action for Russia. It says if the presence of fleets is necessary for the protection of Christians this duty belongs equally to Russian troops."

The Pall Mall Gazette says It was known [illegible] in London this forenoon that the Porte refused to allow the British fleet to approach Constantinople. A Cabinet Council has been summoned [illegible] forenoon.

The Central News says While negotiations are proceeding for obtaining a firman the whole British fleet remains in Besika Bay pending the result.

A despatch from Constantinople states that in consequence of the objections of the Turkish Government the British fleet has not yet passed through the Dardanelles. Russia threatens to occupy Constantinople with an army if the British fleet proceeds further. The English Cabinet is in session considering the situation.

Reply to the Porte's Note

[illegible] Feb 11. Italy has replied to the Porte's note [illegible] the action of the Greeks in crossing the frontier and stating that the Italian Government will remonstrate at Athens.

Greece to Occupy with Troops the Territory in Her Possession

Greece proposes that her troops will continue to occupy the territory in their possession until the Conference decides all questions between Greece and Turkey.

The Russians will Occupy Constantinople

St Petersburg Feb 11. It is officially announced that Prince Gortschakoff on Sunday telegraphed to the powers stating that the intelligence that Great Britain and other powers had determined to send ships to Constantinople for the protection of their subjects, obliged Russia to consider appropriate means for protecting the Christians whose lives and property might be threatened. For this purpose the Russian Government has been obliged to contemplate the entry of a portion of its troops into Constantinople.

Suspicions of England

It is semi officially announced that orders have been sent to Grand Duke Nicholas in accordance with the determination expressed above.

The Russian newspapers generally doubt whether the protection of British subjects is the sole reason for sending the fleet to the Bosphorus.

The Agence Russe declares the facts do not justify the reason alleged for sending the fleet as according to despatches from the Prince of Reuss dated Feb 8th the safety of the Christians was in no way threatened. All the reports of Russians abusing the armistice are absolutely false.

Miscellaneous Reports

London Feb 11. A despatch from Constantinople says a further concession of Turkish iron-clads to Russia is contemplated.

A Berlin despatch says Russia has declared her resolve to re annex Bessarabia despite Roumania's protest.

Cable specials say all English officers on leave of absence have been ordered home.

London, Feb 11. In consequence of the urgent order received at Chatham dock yard from the Admiralty to-day the whole force numbering 1000 men, began work in extra hours to complete the vessels on hand.

A despatch from Constantinople of Feb 10th says It is reported that the Sultan has invited the Russian Grand Duke Nicholas to spend a few days in Constantinople.

Safvet and Sadyk Pachas, will go to Adrianople Tuesday to negotiate the treaty of peace with Gen Ignatieff and M. Nelidoff, formerly Ambassador and first Secretary of the Russian Embassy at Constantinople respectively.

In the House of Commons this evening the report on upon the supplementary vote of £6,000,000, was adopted without a division as was also a motion that the money be raised by the issue of Exchequer bonds.

It is rumored that a telegram has been received from St Petersburg stating that the Russians will enter Constantinople in a peaceable way.

Vienna, Feb. 11. Austria has applied to the Porte for a firman allowing the squadron to enter the Dardanelles.

London, Feb. 11. A Reuter despatch from Vienna confirms the report that Austria has asked for a firman admitting her fleet to the Dardanelles.

Athens, Feb 11. The Chamber, after hearing the explanation of the Ministry for the withdrawal of troops from Thessaly, passed to the order of the day. This is equivalent to the approval of the Government's action.

Orders to Enter Constantinople

London, Feb 12. The correspondent of the Times at St. Petersburg telegraphs: Positively orders have been sent the Russian troops to enter Constantinople. Count Schouvaloff has been ordered to explain to Lord Derby that as the great powers have determined to send fleets to Constantinople Russia is obliged to adopt similar measures; but Russia has no intention of aggravating the situation.

The Times' View—A grave situation.

The Times' leader says a portion of the British fleet will proceed to Constantinople [illegible] what has occurred. Lord Derby emphasized his statement that the other powers may not consider it necessary to avail themselves of the firmans for the admission of their fleets, although they applied for them. It is possible, therefore, the British and Russians alone may be present at Constantinople. Such a position would be one of the gravest anxiety. Everything may turn upon the character of Russian occupation. A mere demonstrative occupation, as that of Paris, ought not to be regarded as alarming; but an occupation in force, with no apparent limit in point of time, would throw upon our Government a very grave responsibility. The moment is one at which a few hasty words or a single hasty act might precipitate a conflict.

The Government have laid down certain limits beyond which we cannot remain indifferent at the advance of Russia. If these limits are passed it would be their duty to act promptly and boldly, but it is equally their duty to place no hasty construction on the acts which may be capable of two interpretations.

PROMENADE CONCERT. The grand promenade concert under the auspices of Andrews Orchestra, assisted by Miss Dora Wiley soprano, Mr J. L. Hodgdon Jr baritone, Mr. F. L. Crowell, pianist, and Mr A D Harlow, cornetist, will take place at Music Hall this evening. The programme which is published elsewhere, is one that is both novel and entertaining, and can not fail to please any audience. Mr. Andrews has spared no pains in making his arrangements and we have no doubt but what the concert will prove a grand success in every sense of the word.

CAMP FIRE. "The arrangements for the Camp Fire under the auspices of Post 12 G. A. R., are progressing very favorably. The St. John's Band has been engaged for the occasion, and the Penobscot Quartette will also be present. The Committee have thus far been notified that comrades from the Posts at Portland, Dexter, Waterville, and Kenduskeag will be present. Arrangements have been made with the Maine Central Railroad Company so that the fare for the round trip from Portland will be $5 00, and from other stations along the line of the road one and one third fare will be charged for the round trip. A fine time is expected.

A PLEASANT PARTY. There's nothing much pleasanter now the snow has come than a ride, but when one can ride out a few miles in the evening, have a dance and supper, returning about midnight, it's charming, as the twenty-five or more couples who rode out to the Lyman Tyler place last evening will testify. The goodly inn was in a most inviting state, having good nice open fires in addition to a hospitable welcome by Mr. Tyler himself. The dance was in the cozy little hall of the Sovereigns of Industry, and the supper, a real good old-fashioned one, was served in a nicely arranged banquet room above. There is no doubt but that the very pleasant experience of last evening will be repeated.

THE REPUBLICAN CITY COMMITTEE held a meeting yesterday afternoon, and organized by the choice of James Woodbury as Chairman, and Manly G. Trask as Secretary and Treasurer. Mr. Dwinel having moved from Ward six tendered his resignation, which was accepted and Manly G. Trask chosen to fill the vacancy.—The question of voting by check list was brought up in the meeting and it was very favorably received although no action was taken on it.

WINN. Our correspondent Noben writes A French woman about thirty-five years old, whose husband left her over a year ago died very suddenly at the Alms House in this place last Tuesday. She went into convulsions at about noon and died in about an hour. There were numerous reports afloat that she had been poisoned by the wife of the keeper of the Alms House, and such was the testimony at the inquest by Coroner McLain but a post mortem examination declared no poison but that she was a sufferer from a female weakness which finally resulted in convulsions and death.

STATE TEMPERANCE ALLIANCE. It is thought by very many of the most active friends of temperance that the cause could be greatly advanced in this State by a more judicious concentration of purpose and effort on the part of the various temperance organizations, the church and the public generally, by association in some State organization similar in plan and scope to that of the Massachusetts State Temperance Alliance which organization has existed in that State for upwards of twenty five years, and embraces in active membership, members of all the various temperance organizations as well as the clergy and churches of almost every denomination, receiving and disbursing from fourteen to eighteen thousand dollars every year, [illegible] lecturers into every portion of the State, arranging for public meetings and supplying speakers and closely watching the temperance pulse and providing means and measures to keep it in a healthy and vigorous state, carefully scrutinizing all legislation and ready at all times to sound the alarm when encroachments from the enemy are attempted. With a view to organizing a similar alliance in Maine and auxiliary to the National Temperance [illegible] the friends of temperance are invited to meet at Congress Hall Portland on Wednesday February 27th at 2 o'clock P M to take such action as may then be found judicious. In the evening a temperance meeting will be held in the City Hall which will be addressed by some of the leading temperance men in the State. It is sincerely hoped that every church and every temperance organization in Maine will send one or more delegates.

The Handel Concert

The Handel Association gave their first concert for the season in City Hall last evening and it was worthy of a very much larger audience than was present. The Association has been in constant rehearsal for the past few months and have reached a high state of perfection. The exercises commenced promptly at eight o'clock with Mr. J. S. Davenport as Director and were carried out in accordance with the following

PROGRAMME

12. Duet [illegible] Piano and Organ [illegible] Mr and Mrs Davenport
13. Martial Chorus—[illegible]

The choruses were rendered in good time and with fine effect and the solos were very sweetly sung. In response to an encore Mrs Osgood sang the "Last Rose of Summer." The best feature of the whole entertainment was the burlesque song "Tyrolean Ducks." This selection was received with a perfect storm of applause and a portion of it was repeated. The various selections were all of a high order and were well received by the audience. The different accompaniments were played by Mrs Davenport in her usual artistic manner.

Reforms in Eastern Maine.

Mr Editor:—The air is full of religious and temperance reform in and around Calais. The canvass of the Young Men's Christian Association which commenced at Eastport the 1st of December has been very successful. Two weeks were spent at Eastport—about a hundred starting in the meetings. Two weeks were then spent at Robbinston, in different sections of the town and over 25 per cent of the population were awakened—two hundred and fifty five manifesting an interest in the life of faith. At Calais a good work has been done, three weeks having been spent there a portion of the time, and five hundred starting. A number of the converts started out on mission work and at Red Beach, seven miles below a revival sprung up and over a hundred converts have started there. At Milltown, Calais, two miles above the brothers have another revival in charge, and on the opposite side, Milltown N B, where one of the brothers has spent a fortnight, a hundred and thirty two started, among them some prominent business men and many young men. The workers have been Col. F. E. Shaw, the Secretary, and F. W. McKenne, H B Smith, G. P Mitchell Bros E M Bailey and Taintor of the Seminary, spent a few days in the work also. As some of your Bangor men are contributors to the funds of the Y M C A, they will be interested in these results.

Invitations to labor with different churches in this section are numerous and urgent. It is hoped that St Stephens, Princeton, Pembroke, Lubec, Dennysville and Machias may be visited before the work closes in Washington County.

D. Banks McKenzie has done a great work in temperance reform at St. Stephens, St. Andrews, Calais and other places. Mr. Taintor, who started the Reform Club in Calais last year, is a great favorite. When he reached Calais last week, the Club gave him a great ovation, a large number drawing him by hand from the depot at St. Stephens to Calais. Mr. T. is a very useful worker in the Y. M. C. A. field, also.

From East Corinth

Mr. Editor:—The farmers in this town have been improving the fine weather and sleding during the past four weeks, in getting up their year's supply of wood, hauling logs to mill and laying in the usual amount of ice for the heated term.

The largest sociable for the season came off last Thursday evening at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. Mr. Bragdon and his excellent lady taking special pains to have every one enjoy the evening, and succeeded most admirably, for a more social and happy company has not been known in this village for many a day. The society announces that their next sociable will be held at Mrs. Geo. Skinner's in Corinth village, in connection with the society in that part of the town. An oyster supper will be served during the evening, a pleasant time is promised and all are invited next Thursday evening.

The main street of our village presented quite a pleasant and lively appearance last Saturday afternoon, the occasion being the hauling of the year's supply of wood by members of the Free Baptist Society to their pastor, Rev O Pitts.

In Charleston, one evening last week the members of the Free Baptist Society gave a picnic supper which was largely attended and pronounced an excellent affair. The proceeds amounting to sixty five dollars were presented to Rev F. A. Palmer who preaches to them one-quarter of the time.

A NEW METHOD WITH MILK.—In a recent issue of the New York Tribune Professor Arnold gives the following account of the new method:

The managers of a few creameries in New York have adopted a method in the management of their milk. As the new milk is received night and morning at the creamery it is run into large vats like make-vats and at once heated to 130 degrees or above by driving steam directly into the milk. This drives the foreign odors out and enables them to keep the milk twelve and twenty four hours longer than it would without heating. As soon the heating is done cold water is run around the milk and through it by a series of horizontal tubes in the middle of the milk, the top tube being just below the cream to be out of the way of skimming. Thus by cooling the milk at the outside and in the middle, it is rapidly done and the cream hurried to the surface.

When it has cooled to the temperature of the air an air tight cover is let down upon the vat, shutting the milk entirely away from all atmospheric influences—a circumstance of considerable importance as the air in cheese factories is seldom just what would be most desirable. In this condition it stands from twelve to sixty hours till the cream is all up, or so much of it as the operator wishes to remove, and this then makes better skim cheese than when not heated.

The cream raised in this manner is most delicious. It has the finest flavor of any I have met in a factory, being entirely free from the stale or bitter taste which is developed in cream raised on unheated milk in the open air, and the butter is all that could be desired. It is strictly gilt edged and unsurpassed. This combines all the best features of the different systems of setting, cooling and excluding from the air without any of the disadvantages which cannot [illegible] either system [illegible] by itself.

The process of butter making and its apparatus [illegible] with it [illegible] so far as I know, and I have no doubt it will continue. But its use is not yet wide enough to determine the question of profit. It costs a little more than old methods and requires facilities for cooling which will be in the way of general adoption. But it has something of value by way of pointing to bottom facts in butter making which seems to me of [illegible] importance as em[illegible] as [illegible]

WILBOR'S COD LIVER OIL AND LIME. The friends of persons who have been restored from confirmed consumption by the use of this original preparation, and the grateful parties themselves, have, by recommending it and acknowledging its wonderful efficacy, given the article a vast popularity in New England. The Cod Liver Oil is in this combination robbed of its unpleasant taste, and is rendered doubly effective in being coupled with the lime which is itself a restorative principle, supplying nature with just the assistance required to heal and reform the diseased lungs. A GENTLE HINT.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemorrhages, Pneumonia, Severe Coughs, Croup or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. German Syrup is now sold in every town and village on this continent. Sample bottles for trial, 10c; regular size, 75 c. d&weow

IT WILL CURE THE WORST CASES

Nine Times out of Ten.

We [illegible] satisfaction of any one [illegible] letters [illegible] We will present one case [illegible] A young married lady in Boston was suffering from this disease [illegible] the [illegible] unfortunate [illegible] attending physician [illegible] near approach of death that the [illegible] has been arranged for the sad event. The father and mother were State of Maine people and had known from [illegible] the [illegible] curative powers of JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT In the early morning the father had been out to the nearest drug store and obtained a bottle and when the physician arrived and stated that the woman's daughter could not live but a short time the mother timidly [illegible] to the doctor that she had great faith in JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT and asked if she might give her daughter some. The doctor replied Certainly if you wish it. It will do neither harm nor good While this conversation was taking place the poor lady was gasping for breath and it was evident that she could live but a few moments longer But the mother quickly uncorked the bottle and gave a teaspoonful clear to her child the effect was like magic in an instant she could breathe a little easier—the mother immediately commenced to bathe the throat externally and in a short time all present saw that the crisis was passed In a few hours she was considered out of danger, and in a few days was well. The husband of this lady related these facts to Mr Jennings of our firm a few days ago in Boston. He said that JOHNSON'S ANODYNE LINIMENT saved the life of his wife without the shadow of a doubt. Why should not every family in this State supply themselves with this priceless remedy at once, and also be prepared for emergencies?

What is the trifling cost of a bottle or a half dozen of this Anodyne, compared with the worth of a human life? Lose not a moment, but let every family be supplied. If any are too poor to pay send to us and state the facts, and we will furnish it for nothing

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.

Bathe the throat with quite warm water, wipe dry, saturate a red flannel with the Liniment, and bind round the neck several thicknesses, with a white cotton cloth outside. Give a teaspoonful internally; repeat twice a day till cured [illegible]
